Happiness Full Stop - John 15:9-17

Good morning, and Happy Mother's Day to all our mothers and mother-figures in our fellowship of faith. On this special day, we would like to thank all of you who shape our lives and build our families and serve as our safe place as we go out into the world. Mothers have a unique power to influence their children no matter how old those children get.

Phil Keith, the former police chief of Knoxville, Tennessee, tells of receiving a call from his mother while he was in the middle of a televised press conference. Keith knew his mother wouldn't call him under those circumstances unless something was seriously wrong, so he excused himself from the press conference to answer the phone.

When his mother picked up the phone, she said, "Phil Keith, are you chewing gum?"

He said, "Um, yes, ma'am."

She said, "Well, it looks awful. Spit it out."

So, Police Chief Phil Keith spit out his gum and returned to finish the press conference. (1) Isn't it amazing the power mothers have over our lives? But if you ask most mothers, they'll say their power is very limited.

It's not easy being a Mom. But most of us have learned to appreciate the many sacrifices our moms have made in our behalf.

Jesus told his followers, "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love." Jesus' words are the model for us all: mothers and fathers and grandmothers and grandfathers, as well as children and siblings and friends. Because God loves us, we love one another. Because He forgives us, we forgive one another. At the center of the Gospel is the self-giving love of God.

1. THERE'S A LINK BETWEEN LOVE AND HAPPINESS.
2. LOVE REQUIRES SACRIFICE.
3. LOVE IS THE VERY ESSENCE OF OUR FAITH

Chosen for the Team

When I was a little boy in grade school in a one-room country school in Darke County, Ohio, we used to choose up sides for softball during the lunch hour. One of the bigger boys would throw the bat in the air and another one would catch it. They would then put their fists around the bat until the man who could hold the bat with his hand last was the one that got to make the first choice. How great it was when he would choose me to be on his team. It really is a great honor and nice to be chosen. The text for today assures us who serve in the church, and especially us who are searching for a life "joyfilled," that God has chosen us.

Dear God,

Thank you for the gift of motherhood. Thank you for the blessing it is to be called “Mom.” Thank you for the good plans you have in store for those who still wait to be a Mom. Thank you for the numerous spiritual children you have given to so many “spiritual moms” and mentors. We pray that you would fill this day with favor and grace as we honor Moms all around our nation.

We ask for comfort for those who are grieving loss and heartache, especially on this day. We ask for strength for those who wait for children to come back home. We ask for healing for those who have been hurt by relationships that were intended to be loving and nurturing. We ask for faith for those who will someday be Moms, who find themselves on a journey that seems so hard. We ask for great encouragement and grace to cover those who have made a brave and loving choice for adoption. We ask for incredible provision and care over every single parent mom who works so hard on behalf of her children. We ask that you would remind many of those who, though they do not have “physical” children, have the gift of being amazing hope-bringers to many spiritual children they’ve been blessed to nurture through these years.

God, thank you, for the gift of life. Thank you that your heart is for us, and that you are with us, in all our unique journeys and pathways. Thank you that you are Sovereign over every part of our lives. Thank you that your ways are perfect and you make our footsteps secure.

Today we pray for refreshing, for joy, for grace, for wisdom, for great peace...for all moms, for moms to be, and for women who nurture and lead.

In Jesus’ Name, Amen.
