Dear Parishioners,

There have been so many blessings that we thank God for this past year—but most especially we thank God for the prayers, support, genuine love and concern of so many faithful parishioners. Thank you for your many kind and generous gifts to us during this Christmas Season. May God bless you for your goodness!

We thank all who work so hard in the parish to continue to strengthen our Catholic community. This past year has especially been a time of the testing of our faith. We treasure the gift of your dedication, sacrifices, and hard work you have shown to make this parish a beacon of Christ's love. In particular, we thank those who serve in the various ministries and organizations. On behalf of our Parish Staff at Immaculate Conception, We wish each of you a blessed and joyous Christmas Season and New Year! Please be assured of our prayers for your intentions and remembrances at Holy Mass. May the peace, joy, and love of the Holy Family be present in your lives each day of the New Year.

Fruit of the Spirit

In the introduction to his book Fruits of the Spirit, Charles Hembree remembers an ancient fable. The fable tells of three merchants who were crossing the Arabian Desert. Because of the heat of the desert they were traveling at night. On that starless night they were crossing over a dry creek bed. As they were crossing a voice in the darkness spoke to them. The voice told them to stop right where they were. Then they were commanded to bend down and pick up the pebbles that were around them in the dry creek bed and put them in their pockets. After they did this they were told to leave and continue on their way and not to camp near the creek bed. The voice from the darkness continued to tell them that in the morning they would be both happy and sad.

Being very frightened by all of this, they traveled through the night and did not stop until they could see the sun. With the arrival of the morning they began to look in their pockets. Instead of finding pebbles in their pockets they found precious jewels. Yes, they were both happy and sad. They were happy that they had listened to the voice of the night but they were also sad that they did not pick up more pebbles.

Charles Hembree goes on to say: "This legend beautifully expresses how many feel about the unsearchable riches of God's Word. We are thrilled we have absorbed as much as we have, but sad because we have not absorbed much more." He goes on to say that this sentiment certainly applies to this verse in Galatians which describes the fruit of the Spirit. Perhaps we should also call these fruits the jewels of the Spirit.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS CONSECRATION TO THE HOLY FAMILY

CONSECRATION TO THE HOLY FAMILY

O LORD JESUS,
you lived in the home of Mary and Joseph in Nazareth.
There you grew in age, wisdom and grace
as you prepared to fulfill your mission as our Redeemer.
We entrust our family to you.

O Blessed Mary,
you are the Mother of our Savior.
At Nazareth you cared for Jesus and nurtured him in the peace and joy of your home.
We entrust our family to you.

O SAINT JOSEPH,
you provided a secure and loving home
for Jesus and Mary, and gave us a model of fatherhood
while showing us the dignity of work.
We entrust our family to you.

HOLY FAMILY,
we consecrate ourselves
and our family to you.
May we be completely united in a love
that is lasting, faithful and open to the gift of new life.
Help us to grow in virtue,
to forgive one another from our hearts,
and to live in peace all our days.
Keep us strong in faith,
persevering in prayer,
diligent in our work, and
generous toward those in need.
May our home, O Holy Family,
truly become a domestic church
Where we reflect your example
in our daily life. Amen.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us!
