Our Fuel

C.S. Lewis wrote, "God has designed the human machine to run on Himself. He Himself is the fuel our spirits were designed to burn, or the food our spirits were designed to feed on. There is no other. That is why it is just no good asking God to make us happy without bothering about religion. God cannot give us happiness and peace apart from Himself, because it is not there. There is no such thing."

C.S. Lewis

The Right Parts and the Right Instructions

Have you heard the story about the man who ordered a tree house over the internet? When the box arrived, it had printed on the top the words that have become every parent's nightmare: "Some assembly required."

The man began to assemble the tree house (but would you believe it?) as he laid out all the parts on the floor and began reading the instructions, he realized (to his dismay) that the instructions were indeed for a tree house, but the parts were for a sail boat!!

The next day, he sent an angry e-mail message to the company complaining about the mix-up. Back came the reply:

"We are truly sorry for the error and the mix-up and the inconvenience. However, it might make you feel better to consider the fascinating possibility that somewhere today there is a man out on a lake trying to sail your tree house."

The point is clear: To put something together, you have to have the right parts and the right instructions. This is where faith comes in. The only way you can put your life together is through faith. Faith in Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. That's what makes it work.

James W. Moore, Collected Sermons, www.Sermons.com

In Communion with Christ

I heard about a little five-year-old boy who fell out of bed. His cry awakened the entire household. After his mother had safely tucked him back under the covers, she said, "Why did you fall out of bed?" Between tears and sobs, he said, "Well, I guess I went to sleep too close to where I got in."

Far too many Christians make the same mistake. They fall out of the bed of life and go to heaven; yet they slept too close to where they got in. They never learned the difference between union and communion.

Jesus said in v.5, "I am the vine, you are the branches." When you trust Christ, you become a branch in His vine. That is union. But he goes on to say in v.5, "He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit." Now that is communion. Union is the basis of communion. To abide in Christ is a twenty-four hour a day, seven day a week, fifty-two week a year intimate fellowship with Him, so that you become a fruit-bearing branch.

James Merritt, Collected Sermons, www.Sermons.com

WELCOME TO JOHN BARNES
DIRECTOR OF SACRED MUSIC

Mr. John Barnes has been hired as our Director of Worship. He will work with Peg LePage in leading us in prayer through liturgical music. He has begun rehearsals with our adult choir.

John was an organ student of Robert McGill at Hendrix College and Dr. Clark Kelly at the University of Central Arkansas, both in Conway; David Caudle of Missouri State University, and Dr. Russell Stinson of Lyon College in Batesville, Arkansas. John is a long-time member of the Springfield Chapter of the American Guild of Organist and the National Association of Pastoral Musicians.

He has spent his adult life in the music ministry of the Roman Catholic Church, having served as the Director of Music/Organist and Choir Director at St. Peter the Fisherman Catholic Church in Mountain Home, Arkansas, for 38 years where he oversaw the installation of a 27-rank pipe organ in 1989. In addition to always playing for the Catholic Church, John also played for two Episcopal Churches and a United Methodist Church. His wife, Lynda, served for 33 years as the financial secretary and annulment advocate for St. Peter's in Mountain Home.

He and Lynda are parishioners at Immaculate Conception Parish where John is also a member of Immaculate Conception Council #13681 Knights of Columbus. He is a third and fourth degree knight and past grand knight of the Fisherman Council Knights of Columbus in Mountain Home.

A retired funeral director and funeral home manager, he and Lynda moved to Springfield last October to be near their son and daughter-in-law and to be the doting grandparents to two grandchildren.

“I am humbled and privileged to be asked by Father Tom and Father Belken to serve our wonderful parish. I hope and pray that my music ministry may be a blessing to you and draw you nearer to Our Blessed Lord”, said John.
