IMMACULATE CONCEPTION SAINT VINCENT DEPAUL 2021 RECAP

Dear Immaculate Conception Parish Family,

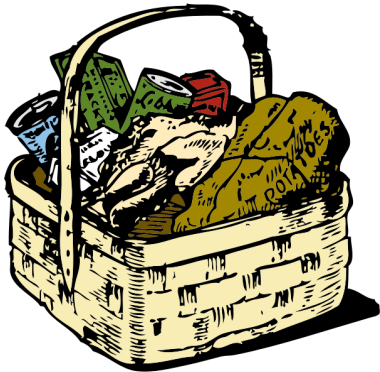

The Immaculate Conception St. Vincent de Paul had another busy year providing food by means of the pantry to over 160 families. We distributed Thanksgiving baskets to 235 families as well as baskets to LifeHouse, Pregnancy Care Center, and Sacred Heart Parish.

Christmas was equally as busy as St. Vincent de Paul assisted 100 families with Christmas Baskets. We also adopted the Republic Pregnancy Care Center helping 10 families with baskets and gift cards. Again this year we provided food to Sacred Heart Parish which enabled them to assist 45 families with Christmas Baskets filled with all the ingredients needed for a traditional tamale meal.

For the year 2021, St. Vincent de Paul spent $13,650.00 keeping the pantry stocked. We spent $14,500.00 providing Thanksgiving and Christmas Baskets, as well as $10,000.00 being spent in gift cards which were used throughout the year.

We assisted families with their rent and utilities amounting to $3,335.00, as well as helping the Franciscan Sisters of St. Elizabeth with furnishings for their new home in Springfield.

As I have mentioned in every letter, none of this would be possible without the help of the St. Vincent de Paul volunteers, students from Immaculate Conception School, and financial contributions from our Parish Family. This year, during the “Stuff the Turkey” drive, the students brought in 7,900 lbs. of food and 1,529 bottles of laundry detergent. GREAT WORK!

In closing, I was asked to pass on how grateful Sacred Heart Parish was for all the help provided by IC. The food and the gifts that were collected from our Angel Tree provided a wonderful Christmas to families of Sacred Heart. I have heard many times “words cannot express how grateful we are...”

Thank you and God Bless!

Dave Moffis
