From Father Tom's Desk

That's All I Want

A little girl reciting the 23rd Psalm began, "The Lord is my shepherd; that's all I want." Maybe she missed the wording, but she sure got the theology right. To have Jesus as our shepherd is indeed a blessing. As he moves towards the cross, Jesus holds up this model of the good shepherd, reminding his listeners that a good shepherd would lay down his life for the sheep. He would give his life to protect the sheep from thieves, wild animals, or whatever danger might confront the flock. We can give him our allegiance because of his commitment to us.

B. Wiley Stephens, One Life to Give

True Abundant Life

One day a man stopped in a convenience store to get a newspaper. He noticed that the owner of the store had tears in his eyes and kept looking out the window. He asked what was going on.

The store owner said, "Do you see that bus bench over there? There's a woman who comes there every day around this time. She sits there for about an hour, knitting and waiting. Buses come and go, but she never gets on one and no one ever gets off for her to meet. The other day, I carried her a cup of coffee and sat with her for a while.

"Her only son lives a long way away. She last saw him two years ago, when he boarded one of the buses right there. He is married now, and she has never met her daughter-in-law or seen their new child. She told me, 'It helps to come here and wait. I pray for them as I knit little things for the baby, and I imagine them in their tiny apartment, saving money to come home. I can't wait to see them.'"

The reason the owner was looking out the window at that particular moment was that the three of them -- the son, his wife and their small child -- were just getting off the bus. The look on the woman's face when this small family fell into her arms was one of pure joy. And this joy only increased when she looked into the face of her grandchild for the first time. The store owner commented, "I'll never forget that look as long as I live."

The next day the same man returned to the convenience store. The owner was again behind the counter. Before the store owner could say or do anything, the customer said, "You sent her son the money for the bus tickets, didn't you?"

The store owner looked back with eyes full of love and a smile and replied, "Yes, I sent the money." Then he repeated his statement from the day before, "I'll never forget that look as long as I live."

This man had discovered a measure of the abundant life.

WELCOME TO JOHN BARNES

DIRECTOR OF SACRED MUSIC

Mr. John Barnes has been hired as our Director of Worship. He will work with Peg LePage in leading us in prayer through liturgical music. He has begun rehearsals with our adult choir.

John was an organ student of Robert McGill at Hendrix College and Dr. Clark Kelly at the University of Central Arkansas, both in Conway; David Caudle of Missouri State University, and Dr. Russell Stinson of Lyon College in Batesville, Arkansas. John is a long-time member of the Springfield Chapter of the American Guild of Organist and the National Association of Pastoral Musicians.

He has spent his adult life in the music ministry of the Roman Catholic Church, having served as the Director of Music/Organist and Choir Director at St. Peter the Fisherman Catholic Church in Mountain Home, Arkansas, for 38 years where he oversaw the installation of a 27-rank pipe organ in 1989. In addition to always playing for the Catholic Church, John also played for two Episcopal Churches and a United Methodist Church. His wife, Lynda, served for 33 years as the financial secretary and annulment advocate for St. Peter's in Mountain Home.

He and Lynda are parishioners at Immaculate Conception Parish where John is also a member of Immaculate Conception Council #13681 Knights of Columbus. He is a third and fourth degree knight and past grand knight of the Fisherman Council Knights of Columbus in Mountain Home.

A retired funeral director and funeral home manager, he and Lynda moved to Springfield last October to be near their son and daughter-in-law and to be the doting grandparents to two grandchildren.

"I am humbled and privileged to be asked by Father Tom and Father Belken to serve our wonderful parish. I hope and pray that my music ministry may be a blessing to you and draw you nearer to Our Blessed Lord", said John.
