From Father Tom's Desk

Mary Prayer the Latter

William Barclay once said that the world's most popular prayer is, "Thy will be changed." But the world's greatest prayer is, "Thy will be done." Mary prayed the latter.

Consider the Impossible

This is a story of impossibilities. Consider the impossibilities Mary faced in this story: She is a virgin and pregnant — she is having a child while she is a virgin. Impossible! No way! Won't happen! Joseph has to follow through on the marriage after he discovers Mary is pregnant. Impossible! Mary must avoid being stoned to death when the neighbors hear the news. Impossible!

Consider the impossibility Elizabeth faced. She was well past the childbearing age, and yet God says she is going to conceive and bear a child. This impossible news left old Zechariah speechless. Impossible! No way! Won't happen!

This is a story of biblical impossibilities. But, what are the impossibilities in our world? What would you label "impossible" in your life? Peace in our world. Impossible! No way! Won't happen! Christian values returning to our nation, morality becoming the norm? Impossible! Our church reaching our surrounding community and making our world different? Impossible! Restoring relationships, healing past hurts in our lives. A relative or friend entering a relationship with Christ. Breaking an addiction and overcoming past hurts and disappointments? Impossible!

We find ourselves with the same troubled mind as Mary, wondering over the impossible (v. 29). We even ask the same question Mary asked, "How will this be?" (v. 34). To us it seems impossible! No way! Won't happen! The real question for people today is "How can the impossible become possible?"

Dwight Gunter, The Possible Impossible

At Christmas Time I Am Somebody

Several years ago I visited a man in a nursing home. Life was difficult for him and he constantly complained because he had no visitors and felt lonely and neglected. He seemed to have every right to complain as he did, considering the circumstances under which he lived. I went to see him just before Christmas. There were Christmas cards on his wall and a poinsettia plant on the table and he told me that the night before carolers from a local church came by and sang Christmas carols for him. I asked him how he was doing and he said, "At Christmas time I am somebody."

A nobody is a somebody at Christmas. All of the things that surround the birth of Jesus are for you -- hope, joy, peace, and love. In your ordinariness, right where you are, God comes to you. At Christmas time you are somebody."

CONSECRATION TO THE HOLY FAMILY

O LORD JESUS, you lived in the home of Mary and Joseph in Nazareth.
There you grew in age, wisdom and grace as you prepared to fulfill your mission as our Redeemer.

We entrust our family to you.

O Blessed Mary,
you are the Mother of our Savior.
At Nazareth you cared for Jesus and nurtured him in the peace and joy of your home.

We entrust our family to you.

O SAINT JOSEPH,
you provided a secure and loving home for Jesus and Mary, and gave us a model of fatherhood while showing us the dignity of work.

We entrust our family to you.

HOLY FAMILY,

we consecrate ourselves
and our family to you.

May we be completely united in a love that is lasting, faithful and open to the gift of new life.

Help us to grow in virtue,
to forgive one another from our hearts,
and to live in peace all our days.

Keep us strong in faith,
persevering in prayer,

diligent in our work, and generous toward those in need.

May our home, O Holy Family, truly become a domestic church
Where we reflect your example in our daily life. Amen.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us!

Our Christmas Collection Seminarians & Retired Priests

How have priests helped you through difficult or stressful times? How have priests helped you grow closer to our Lord and to each other? How can you help prepare the men who will serve your parish in the years to come? What can we do to show our gratitude for the priests who have ministered to us? The Christmas collection will give us the opportunity to assist the diocese in funding the formation of our future priests – our seminarians – and meeting the needs of our retired diocesan priests. We ask you to generously support Those Clergy Who Have Served and Those Clergy Who Will Serve. Even though we have recently completed a diocesan endowment campaign for these needs, many of those pledges will not be completed for a few years, making this collection still necessary at this time.

YEAR END GIVING & CURRENT REQUESTS

END OF YEAR GIVING

It is the time of year when we express thanks for the many blessings we have received. With that in mind, I ask you to consider an end-of-year donation to our parish of Immaculate Conception.

Your end-of-year donation helps to keep our ministries vibrant and effective to fellow parishioners, our school family, those in need, staff salaries, and our parish plant in good repair. Please consider a gift to Immaculate Conception Parish.
