PARISH NEWS

THANKSGIVING DAY

As we gather with our family and friends to celebrate Our national holiday of Thanksgiving, and to thank God for the multitude of ways he has blessed us personally and as a nation, let us pray for peace in our world, especially that the problems in Ukraine can be solved. We encourage you to make Mass a part of your celebration. Mass times are at normal times on Thanksgiving day-6:30am and 8:30am. There will be NO Adoration on Thanksgiving day.

A HUGE HOLIDAY SALE THANK YOU

Immaculate Conception Parish Council of Catholic Women would like to thank everyone who donated white elephants, baked goods, or food for the Bistro. It took many volunteers to price, pack, set up and tear down for our sale. We could not have done it without your help. It was definitely a team effort, and we appreciate your hard work. We don't have a final number, but the sale generated around $7600.00. This money will be used to support many different charities on a local level.

PCCW CHRISTMAS DINNER

Please join us for our annual Christmas dinner on Tuesday, December 13th at 5:30pm in CRA. This is a catered dinner, and the cost is $12.00. If you would like to make a reservation, please call Rita Donica at 417-393-9566. All reservations need to be made by noon, December 9th. After our dinner we will go into the church for a Christmas concert by the Mid America Singers at 7:30pm. Please bring a Christmas card with your name and birthday for prayer partners. If you are able to bring 2 dozen cookies for the Christmas bags, we would appreciate it.

QUILT RAFFLES

PCCW has two beautiful quilts to raffle for Christmas. One quilt is Santa Claus and the other quilt is a nativity theme. Both were made by parishioners and will be on display in the Gathering Area every weekend until December 8th. On our feast day, we will draw the lucky winners! Price is $1.00 each, or 6 for $5.00.

VETERANS COLLECTION

Our PCCW will be collecting cold weather items for veterans. If you would like to donate any of the following items: socks, scarves, mittens, gloves, hand warmers, stocking caps, etc. These items will be for men and women. Please place them in the bin that was used for white elephants outside CRA. The collection will end December 4th.

ADVENT

The season of advent begins Nov. 27. Advent is a time of preparation, a time of spiritual renewal. In our consumer society, where the Christmas decorations go up immediately after Halloween, and where the Christmas lighting starts on Thanksgiving, if not before, it takes a little doing to keep focused on the purpose of advent.

We invite you to make this advent a meaningful one by personal prayer and reflection. We encourage you to attend daily mass if at all possible or at least one extra daily mass each week. We suggest spending extra time in prayer and reflection.

We encourage you to attend our advent penance service on Monday, December 12 at 7pm and consider making contributions for the various projects for the poor.

CHARISMS FROM THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Parish Pastoral Council is undertaking a project that will help you discover your 'Charisms' or Spiritual Gifts. Simply scan the QR Code below, complete the survey and hit submit. If needed, a paper copy is available in the Gathering Area. Please return it to the box on the Gathering Area table.

BISHOP RICE'S NOVEMBER PRAYER INTENTION

"Let us pray for our family and friends who have passed away, that they may see God face to face."

Reflections on this Sunday's Readings- The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

The readings of recent weeks have been preparing us for the events we mark today– Christ's Kingly victory over sin and his reign on the Day of Judgment, we heard the great commandment to love God and to love our neighbor.

Then we were reminded always to be prepared for the Lord's return and to use the gifts that we were given.

Today the gospel highlights the intimate link between loving God and loving our neighbor, and reminds us that we are accountable for how we use our time and resources on this earth. Reward or punishment is the natural and inevitable outcome of having an open and generous or a closed and selfish heart. Ask those who visit prisoners or care for the poor, and you will usually discover that they have a realm of deep inner joy.

Jesus' kingship has everything to do with day-by-day faithfulness to his Father's will– to respond with compassion to the suffering of others. Sometimes people want to isolate "service" as though it were just one aspect of the gospel. But justice and compassion are the good news. Sometimes we are afraid. Sometimes we just have other priorities. Life passes quickly! Let us stir up the love in our hearts and find God's realm of joy waiting for us.

-Beth Porter

CATHOLIC CHARITIES 2ND COLLECTION

Today our parish joins others across our Diocese to support Catholic Charities of Southern Missouri in the annual Second Collection. Every family deserves a home, every mother deserves a new beginning, and every veteran deserves restored pride. This is an opportunity for our Catholic community to unite as one Church east to west to provide hope and help to the poor in our neighborhoods. Please give generously with a donation today, or at www.ccsomo.org, or mail your gift to Catholic Charities of Southern Missouri, 424 E. Monastery St., Springfield, MO 65807, or call in a pledge to (417) 720-4213. Thank you for your prayers and support.

JOB OPENING AT IC

Immaculate Conception Parish is seeking a fulltime maintenance person to oversee electrical, plumbing and air, along with cleaning church bathrooms, community rooms, and offices of the complex. Applicants must have knowledge and experience in all phases of maintenance work. Hours will be primarily from 7:30am – 4:30 pm., Monday – Friday. This is a year-round position. Interested candidates should apply in person at Immaculate Conception Parish Office during regular office hours Monday – Friday 8:00 am to 4:30 pm. References are required.

SACRED HEART COLD WEATHER SHELTER

Did you know there are at least 600 unsheltered people living on the streets of Springfield? Sacred Heart Parish has opened its cold weather shelter and is in need of volunteers to stay overnight while guests sleep. Volunteers are also needed to prepare dinner and breakfast. For more information or to volunteer to help with this ministry, please contact the Parish Office at (417) 869-3646.
