Today our Lord Jesus Christ ascended into heaven; let our hearts ascend with him. Listen to the words of the Apostle: If you have risen with Christ, set your hearts on the things that are above where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God; seek the things that are above, not the things that are on earth. For just as he remained with us even after his ascension, so we too are already in heaven with him, even though what is promised us has not yet been fulfilled in our bodies.

Christ is now exalted above the heavens, but he still suffers on earth all the pain that we, the members of his body, have to bear. He showed this when he cried out from above: Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? and when he said: I was hungry and you gave me food.

Why do we on earth not strive to find rest with him in heaven even now, through the faith, hope and love that unites us to him? While in heaven he is also with us; and we while on earth are with him. He is here with us by his divinity, his power and his love. We cannot be in heaven, as he is on earth, by divinity, but in him, we can be there by love.

He did not leave heaven when he came down to us; nor did he withdraw from us when he went up again into heaven. The fact that he was in heaven even while he was on earth is borne out by his own statement: No one has ever ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man, who is in heaven.

These words are explained by our oneness with Christ, for he is our head and we are his body. No one ascended into heaven except Christ because we also are Christ: he is the Son of Man by his union with us, and we by our union with him are the sons of God. So the Apostle says: Just as the human body, which has many members, is a unity, because all the different members make one body, so is it also with Christ. He too has many members, but one body.

Out of compassion for us he descended from heaven, and although he ascended alone, we also ascend, because we are in him by grace. Thus, no one but Christ descended and no one but Christ ascended; not because there is no distinction between the head and the body, but because the body as a unity cannot be separated from the head.

-From a sermon by St. Augustine

PARISH NEWS

UPDATE ON PARISH RECTORY

Other than a kitchen update and addition of garage and storage space, nothing has been renovated since the current rectory was built in 1985, 38 years ago. The parish owned a nearby home that was used as a parish rectory prior to 1985. So now it is time for some fairly extensive repair and maintenance, flooring, painting, bathrooms and making some additional accessible space on the main floor. Bishop Rice has approved the renovation and after consultation with the Parish Pastoral Council and Finance Council we plan to accept a bid from a respected contractor. We have some available funds that were bequests from long time parishioners but would greatly appreciate any additional donations for this project. If you have any questions about the rectory renovations please call the church office. Thank you for your consideration for the betterment of the Immaculate Conception Parish Campus.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Next Sunday is one of the greatest days on the Church's calendar. "Pentecost Sunday" We would like to invite you to wear red, the liturgical color of Pentecost. A field of red filling the assembly space will surely have an impact, especially on children. This custom may create lasting memories for all, memories of the fire of the Spirit (not the St. Louis Cardinals).

Fr. Tom

BISHOP RICE'S MAY PRAYER INTENTION

As we celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima, May 13, may we heed the call of Our Lady for prayer and conversion, to pray the rosary and offer sacrifices, all for world peace.

PARISH AND AREA NEWS

FALL SCRIPTURE STUDY

Scripture Study here at Immaculate Conception is an invaluable resource for us to strengthen the foundation of our faith lives. We use the Little Rock Scripture as our study format, meeting in the spring and fall of each year. We are so fortunate our church has been able to offer many wonderful programs. Unfortunately, we all haven't been able to participate in everything, so we have missed many of you this spring. In September we are excited to be starting back with the study of Hebrews. This is perhaps the book of the Bible which best shows the linkages between the Old and New Testaments. We will be putting dates and times in the bulletin later. If you have any questions, please contact Jim Gessler at (417) 848-6216 or email jgessler@mac.com.

MEN'S PRAYER GROUP

The Men's Prayer Group is a gathering of men who pray with and for one another. After a short presentation and discussion on how to grow deeper spiritually, we spend time in prayer. Prayer is powerful, and God is faithful to answer our sincere prayers.

Please join us the last Sunday of every month from 7-8:30pm in Community Room A. If you would like to also say the Rosary you may join us at 6:30pm.
