From Father Tom's Desk

The Discipline of Simplicity

In Richard Foster's book of discipline he divides discipline into three parts: Inward, Outward, and Corporate discipline. He places simplicity under the category of the Outward Disciplines. Here are his ten ways to order our world so that we can create simplicity in our life.

- First, buy things for their usefulness rather than their status.
- Second, reject anything that is producing an addiction in you.
- Third, develop a habit of giving things away.
- Fourth, refuse to be propagandized by the custodians of modern gadgetry.
- Fifth, learn to enjoy things without owning them.
- Sixth, develop a deeper appreciation for creation.
- Seventh, look at a healthy skepticism at all "buy now, pay later" schemes.
- Eighth, obey Jesus' instructions about plain, honest speech.
- Ninth, reject anything that will promote the oppression of others.
- Tenth, shun whatever would distract you from your main goal: "Seek first the kingdom of God."

Richard Foster, Celebration of Discipline

Happiness

Dr. Viktor Frankl, author of the book "Man's Search for Meaning," was imprisoned by the Nazis in WWII because he was a Jew. His wife, his children, and his parents were all killed in the holocaust.

The Gestapo made him strip. He stood there totally naked. As they cut away his wedding band, Viktor said to himself, "You can take my wife, you can take away my children, you can strip me of my clothes and my freedom, but there is one thing no person can ever take away from me and that is my freedom to choose how I will react to what happens to me!" Even under the most difficult of circumstances, happiness is a choice which transforms our tragedies into triumph.

SUPREME COURT STRIKES HEALTH PROTECTIONS FOR WOMEN

The Supreme Court announced its extremely disappointing decision in June Medical Services v. Russo on June 29, 2020. We place our faith and trust in Christ our hope as we continue to fight for justice, for to him belongs the victory. On behalf of the USCCB, Archbishop Joseph Naumann responded here: <http://www.usccb.org/news/2020/20-106.cfm?>

STUDY CONFIRMS NEED FOR FATHERS TO TAKE THEIR FAITH SERIOUSLY

A rather large and important study conducted by the Swiss government in 1994 and published in 2000 revealed some astonishing facts with regard to the generational transmission of faith and religious values. In short, the study reveals: "It is the religious practice of the father of the family that, above all, determines the future attendance at or absence from church of the children."

THE STUDY REPORTS (3):

1. If both father and mother attend regularly, 33% of their children will end up as regular churchgoers, and 41% will end up attending irregularly. Only a quarter of their children will end up not practicing at all.
2. If the father does not regularly attend and the mother regularly attends, only 3% of the children will subsequently become regulars themselves, while a further 59% will not attend regularly. Thirty-eight percent will be lost.
3. If the father is non-practicing and mother regularly attends, only 2% of children will become regular worshippers, and 37% will attend irregularly. Over 60% of their children will be lost completely to the church!

What happens if the father regularly attends but the mother does not or is non-practicing? Amazingly, the percentage of children becoming regular goes up from 33% to 38% with the irregular mother and up to 44% with the non-practicing. This suggests that loyalty to the father's commitment grows in response to the mother's laxity or indifference to religion.

In short, if a father does not go to church -- no matter how faithful his wife's devotions - only one child in 50 will become a regular worshipper. If a father does go regularly, regardless of the practice of the mother, between two-thirds and three-quarters of their children will become churchgoers (regular and irregular). One of the reasons suggested for this distinction is that children tend to take their cues about domestic life from Mom while their conceptions of the world outside come from Dad. If Dad takes faith in God seriously then the message to their children is that God should be taken seriously.

This confirms the essential role of father as spiritual leader, which I would argue is true fatherhood. Fathers are to love their wives as Christ loves the church, modeling the love of the Father in their most important earthly relationship. Fathers are to care for their children as our Father in heaven cares for us and finally, fathers play a primary role in teaching their children the truth about reality. It is the father who should instruct his children in their understanding of the world from a consciously and informed Christian worldview. It is the father who is essential for sending his children forth with a biblical view of reality and a faith in Jesus Christ that is rooted in solid understanding.

It is time for fathers to return to honorable manhood and reconsider their priorities and realign them with God's commands, decrees, and laws, teaching these things to your children "when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise" (Deuteronomy 6:7).

THANK YOU FROM FR. TOM

THANK You
SO VERY much

Thank YOU!

I want to personally let you how much it meant to me that you honored my mother, Mildred Philomena Kiefer, by having her name engraved in granite on the Mother's Wall at the Mary, Mother of the Church Shrine, Lake of the Ozarks, Laurie, Missouri. (Section F, Block 3, Row 2).

God bless the members of our Knights of Columbus who also presented to me last Sunday a Knights of Columbus official vestment emblazed with a golden K of C emblem.

We are all blessed by the ministry accomplished and willingness to serve of our Knights of Columbus and all dedicated women and men's groups who minister so unselfishly in our parish.

I am honored and blessed to me a member of Immaculate Conception Parish's family.

PROJECTS TO PREPARE FOR THE FUTURE WHEN WE CAN GATHER

- ◆ YOUTH ROOM: Removing old furniture, carpet and damaged ceiling tile from the lower level youth room and replacing with a hard surface floor covering. This will provide a clean and pleasant place for our youth to meet and to pray. It will also make the room accessible for our school children during a storm threat.
- ◆ VIDEO PRODUCTION ROOM: Enlarging the room by four feet to provide for streaming Mass. This will enable us to make use of the WiFi signal to equipment used to connect to our parishioners who are at home and the homebound to pray with us for our celebration of the Eucharist and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.
- ◆ CHAPEL: Removing pews and the deteriorated carpet and replacing the flooring with a hard surface floor and chairs to provide for funerals that have a small attendance, thus allowing the accessibility of bringing a casket into the chapel for the funeral Mass.

MAINTENANCE & IMPROVEMENT

This week we will be repairing sections of our parking lot, sealing cracks, sealing and striping our parking lot. The cost of this maintenance to prevent more extensive repairs is $16,223.94. The funds are available from our Improvement and Maintenance fund. Thank you for your sacrifices to this fund which enables us to keep our parish facilities in good repair and preventative maintenance.
